Dear Fishel, ✡
Thank you again for an extraordinary wedding experience. While we knew to expect rave reviews from the guests about the food, we were not specifically expecting the advice, counsel, perspective, and even help in planning the wedding, and many of its details. You helped us work with the hotel and guided us on so many other things including the work of keeping the wedding on schedule. May you and your family be continued to be blessed with mitzvot and simchos.
Appreciatively, Kelly and Chaim Yudkowsky
