This past double-snowstorm we were zoche to cater the Isaacson and Thav weddings, as well as the Abramson and Schwartz brissim. If you were at these simchas, as well as the Nudell and Kowalsky weddings during the blizzard of 1996, bring this ad in signed by one of the mechutanim for a NEW PAIR OF GALOSHES!

At least three of these baalei simchas are from the Glen Ave. neighborhood - a statistical anomaly - believe it or not!

And as Uncle Jimmy was fond of singing: there's no simchas, like snow simchas...

We attribute our ability to successfully cater these events to 3 main factors.

1. Syata d'shmaya
2. Strategic logistical spread-sheeted, meteorologically-sensitive, 4-wheel drive planning.
3. A lot more syata d'shmaya.
