Dear Mr. Gross, עמ"ש

On behalf of the Rebbetzin Frieda K. Hirmes Women's Institute of Torah, I would like to thank you and your staff for all of your assistance during our Women's Day of Torah, Inspiration and Growth held on December 25th. The meal was delicious and the women thought the presentation was beautiful. We greatly appreciated how readily available your staff was to assist us with any concern we might have had.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

"If you have a blank check, you have a lawyer"

Dear O',

Our client, PPPORC and their sister division, See & Tax Airport of Washington State, would like to take issue with your distribution and the subsequent gastronomic consumption of thousands of delicious Star-K potato latkes, as well as ~~sooof soup~~ ~~surfgan~~ jelly donuts at the Ellipse in our Nation's Capitol. First of all, the applesauce you served was not genuine Washington-State apple-sauce. For your edification, Washington State is the largest producer of Washington State apples and ~~Ottensosser~~ applesauce in the world. Secondly, had you distributed the aforementioned delectables in our airport in Washington State in December instead of Washington, DC, our drive-by/drive through/ drive-you-crazy media would indubitably have been sufficiently distracted from the airport Seasonal Secular Arbor vs. 8-Limbed Candelabrum issue, thereby avoiding an international interdenominational conflagration.

With deep and abiding affection,

P.S. In the words of our inimitable friend, spokesman for PPPORC, affectionately known as דבר אחר: "Th-th-th-that's not all folks!"

P.P.S. If you can guess what PPPORC stands for, fax it in for a free lawsuit!

Hint: the second P stands for Protecting

P.P.P.S. Can you name the #1 and #2 cash crops of Washington State? Our clients can!
