Mazel Tov to vast panoply of Silver Spring and D.C. families and organizations who have recently made it O'Fishel, including:
Tuvia and Faygie Graumon on the Aufruf and subsequent marriage of their son...Mr. & Mrs. Harrison Greenfield on their 60th Anniversary and antecedent wedding (bring in this ad, signed by your parents, for your FREE 75th Anniversary Party)...Rabbi Levi Shemtov and The National Lubavitch Organization on their series of first-class breakfasts...Sharon Ganz and the Orthodoxie Orthodox Singles on their outstanding weekend...The Goldschmidt and Bernstein families on the wedding

And closer to home, in the city with an even OLDER Washington Monument, we have some special Mazel Tavs as well!

...to Yitz & Helen Raskas on the marriage of their daughters to the Nissel boys (as well as on Devorah's marriage to Dovid Rabinowitz!). This is one of the first documented cases of mother-daughter teams that have both made their weddings O'Fishel.

...to Ron & Myrna Mitnick, as well as to Ephraim and Esty Greenstein, all of whom married off two daughters this year, and, at least as importantly, made it O'Fishel!

TRUTH IS STRANGER THAN FICTION DEPT.

A carb-conscious young lady recently put herself on a diet where she pledged to not make the bracha of Mezonos. Temptation loomed as she passed by the Pizza shop and caught a whiff. Her solution was as clever as the diet itself: eat 3 slices and make Hamotzil!

Answer to Last Month's

Q. How many times in Tanach does it use the word כִּשָׁר, and where?

A major 'shkoyach and a FREE BOWL OF O'FISHEL'S FAMOUS CHOLENT to Rabbi Menachem Zehnwirth et al, who not only provided us with the answer we were looking for (it appears once, in Megillas Esther ??/./), but also appears in other contexts, such as כִּשָׁרֹן
