מזל טוב

In a spate of frenzied pre-Pesach Paschal-punishment pattering (to relieve them from Kareis), O'Fishel was proud to participate (in the finest catering sense of the word) in numerous brissim in the community. In fact, we heard that the Mohel had to order a new Bris Kit for Pesach (and we all know how much a brisket can be right before Pesach!). Specifically, we'd like to wish a Mazel Tov to the following families, whose homes were blessed with additional voices, some of whom stayed up all Seder night until their parents came and told them: דיין!
 To the entire Rabinowitz, Singer, Reichman and Sachs Families, (as well as to the Pleeters on the debut of the latest master artisan, little Betzalel Pleeter! · O'Fishel is honored and privileged to have catered the first Bar Mitzvah in the Shomrei building:
Nachy Taragin, 21 years ago!!! · Mazel Tov to The Entire Raskas Family on the inaugural Bar Mitzvah of Dony in the new and improved Shomrei hall, and to the close to 800 guests at the Kiddush, many of whom were even invited! · Mazel Tov to Judith Lubsky & Baruch Tumin on their wedding at the Sheraton North. And speaking of Sheratons:

O'FISHEL HAS PREFERRED STATUS BOTH AT THE SHERATON NORTH, AS WELL AS THE SHERATON CENTER CITY (FORMERLY WYNDHAM), AS WELL AS CATERING AT THE NEW VALLEY MANSION & THE MARRIOTT HUNT VALLEY!

Congratulations!
 To the BYBB Team on their so-far undefeated record, including stunning victories over Phila. and Yeshiva High (how sweet it is!)

Answer from Last Month:
 Q. In which parsha(s) is/are there no mention of food?
 A. Congratulations to Hallel Newman on finding at least one food from each and every Parsha! Some people really know how to spend a bein hazmanim! Call O'Fishel for your free Shabbos special and your deluxe Tehillim.

Note: In a surprise attack of politically correct conscience, O'Fishel will no longer be accepting material from Imus or Andy.
