not for the determined indifference of about a handful of (non)voters, our representation on the Democratic State Central Committee would be more representative!

BLEEVE

...it or not!

In 1863, Rabbi Akiva Hager was leading an expedition to find Yerushalayim d'America.
His horse got stuck at exit 32B, and he set up camp. This settlement came to be known as Hagerstown! If you believe this, you'll believe many of the ads....

Mazel Tov to the Weinreb and Davis Families on the propitious occasions of the first Nusach Sfard minyan in Hagerstown, Shuli's family-recipe-herring and Avi's Bar
Mitzvah, not necessarily in that order!
